M : Let's talk about the newsletter.

W : OK, let's check what we've got so far. We've decided to have one main story and one short story, right?

M : Right. And what about pictures? Should we have one for each story?

W : I'm not so sure about that. Maybe it would be too much. How about just for the main story?

M : That sounds good. Now, what will our stories be? We could do one about the students who visited from Hawaii. Maybe we could use one of the photos they sent us.

Questions No. 20 to 22

After high school, I went to a university that was far away from home. I could only visit my friends and family every six months. Of course, I missed them, so I started using social media. It enabled us to keep in touch with each other. When I was in my second year of university, a friend in my hometown and her husband had a baby girl. The very same day, I was able to see pictures of their daughter. A year later, on my dorm room computer, I watched a live video of her taking her first steps. What had the biggest impact on me, however, was following my sister's adventures while she studied abroad in Spain. I hate to say it, but I started to feel envious of them because their lives seemed so perfect. This is one of the problems with social media. People only post the good things that happen to them, and without thinking about it, we compare ourselves to them. Social media allowed me to experience things I otherwise would have missed. However, it is also necessary to be aware of all the good things in our own lives.

これで第4問Aは終わりです。次の問題に進みます。

第4問B 第4問Bは問23から問25までの3問です。長めの会話を一つ聞き、問23から問25の答えとして最も適切なものを、四つの選択肢(①~④)のうちから一つずつ選びなさい。

Questions No. 23 to 25

Jason : Hi, Bella. Nina and I were just talking about how excited we are about our ski trip this coming January.

Bella : Me too, but I'm worried whether my body can handle skiing for two weeks. I'm stretching every day to improve my flexibility, but I don't think it's enough.

Nina : Why don't we start an exercise program to help us prepare?

Bella : That's a great idea, Nina, but what do you recommend? Should we focus on muscle strength or stamina?

Nina : Well, I think the most important thing is to improve our stamina. We'll be skiing on some of the most challenging mountains in Canada. If we're not well-conditioned, we'll run out of energy quickly. What do you think, Jason?

Jason : Exactly. I think we should start jogging . . . maybe five kilometers a day, and gradually work our way up to ten. What do you think, Bella?

Bella : I agree, but I think we should also focus a little on strength. If our legs aren't strong enough, we won't be able to make sharp turns . . . or stop quickly. It's good to be able to ski all day, but if we get injured, our trip will be over! If we only focus on stamina, we won't have enough muscle.

Jason : I guess so. Nina, do you have any suggestions for building up strength?

Nina : Well, in addition to the jogging, maybe every other day we could do weight training. I recommend squats. That'll really make our legs stronger.

Jason : Bella, are you OK with Nina's idea?

Bella : I think every other day is too much. We have only six months before our trip, and I think stamina has to be our priority. What do you say, Nina?

Nina : Sounds good.

Jason : OK. Let's go running on Mondays and Fridays, and then go to the weight room on Wednesdays. This would give us the best mix of stamina and strength.
